FEES

Unless otherwise stated at the time of booking course fees are £50 per day and this includes, lunch, teas, coffees and refreshments. Life classes carry a surcharge of £5 per day . To book a course requires a 50% deposit paid in advance. Terms and conditions are supplied before a booking is confirmed

DISCOUNTS

Favourable discounts are available for group bookings and for those who pre book more than 8 days in anyone academic year

GROUP BOOKINGS

In addition to the courses listed above Niel Bally holds workshops for small groups who have specific requests or interests. This could be corporate, a society or an art group. For example he presently runs a drawing workshop for a local sculpture group. Before the course begins an agenda is drawn up and both parties work out the groups requirements and the course is designed around that.

MATERIALS

There is no need to be concerned about materials or making an expensive outlay. The studio has all the necessary equipment. Some of the materials are included in the fee and there is also a stock of paints, paper, surfaces and drawing equipment that can be purchased when required.
